

The City of Kennesaw was recognized by the Cobb County Convention & Visitors Bureau as the Service Member of the Year. Mayor Mathews was presented with a plaque at the Nov 11 Annual Meeting. The CVB is the organization responsible for growing the tourism and hospitality industries in the county, Kennesaw was cited for the opening of the pedestrian underpass which offers visitors safe access to city amenities. Also mentioned were the accolades earned by Smith-Gilbert Gardens from the American Rose Society.